Hale, in his speech, holds that the Convention must remain in a state of suspended animation until the Committee are ready to report.

BULLETIN NO. 5.

Conkling followed Hale, claiming it would facilitate the business of the Convention by taking the recess; and said it was not in order to proceed, unless the Committee on Credentials reported.

BULLETIN NO. 6.

Conkling's motion to take recess was lost.

BULLETIN NO. 7.

Joy, of Michigan, offered a resolution that the contestants from the State of Illi-

The Committee on Credentials have agreed to admit sixteen of the Illinois contestants, and are now on the Kansas case.
It is generally conceded that General Grant and Blaine are out of the contest, and that a dark horse will get the nomination.

COMMITTEE WORK.

The Committee on Credentials Organized—It is Opposed to Grant.

CHICAGO, June 3.—As soon as the debate was over the placing of Utah on the roll had concluded, the Committee on Credentials were escorted to the rooms of the Exposition managers over the main entrance of the building. Pending the arrival of some half dozen tardy members, it was suggested that W. M. Bateman, of Ohio, act as informal Chairman, and the Committee call the roll of uncontested States. The suggestion seemed to meet a general approval, and the clerk, Mr. Chandler's private secretary—was about to exercise his lung power, when several absentees put in an appearance. Immediately Green B. Baum sprang to his feet and nominated Benjamin F. Tracey for Chairman. W. E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, was equally prompt and placed in nomination O. D. Conger, of Michigan. A roll call was ordered, which resulted in the election of the Michigan Congressman by a vote of 29 to 17—seven being absent or not voting.

The political complexion of the Committee is Grant 14, and anti-Grant 31, Louisiana not being represented.
It convened soon after its members were announced, and was in session at an early hour this morning. The Raper case from Alabama was decided in favor of the contestant, a district delegate who refused to be bound by the iron-clad Grant instructions of the state convention. After this case had been disposed of, the Illinois quarrel was taken up, and at last accounts the discussion was still in progress.

PERMANENT.

The Report of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The Committee on Permanent Organization held a meeting last evening at a little after 6 o'clock in the Directors' room of the Exposition Building, with Mr. Piersons, of New York, in the chair, and Mr. Downs, of Maine, acting as Secretary.

After the Chairman had called the meeting to order, Mr. Watkins, of Michigan, moved that the present temporary organization of the Convention be made the permanent one. The Chair stated that he could not entertain the motion in its present form, since it was not customary, but if the gentleman would amend it to naming only the Chairman, it would be regular, and he would be pleased to recognize the motion.

Mr. Watkins then moved that it be the sense of the Committee that Judge Hoar, the Temporary Chairman of the National Republican Convention, be made the permanent one.

Mr. Huchings, of Kentucky, moved that the Hon. A. J. Cresswell, of Maryland, be named as the Permanent Chairman.
A vote was then taken, and Judge Hoar was named by 39 for to 13 against him.
The Temporary Secretaries were then made the permanent ones, and Mr. George F. Hoar, of Kentucky, added. This action was without dissent.

The list of vice-presidents and assistant secretaries from the States and Territories was then adopted.

BREAKING AWAY.

Cameron Going for Edmunds—A Caucus of Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, June 2.—A caucus of Pennsylvania delegates was called to meet at the Tremont house after the Convention yesterday to take into consideration the situation, and what was best to do in the emergency which has arisen.

"There were about one-half of our delegation present," said one of the delegates who was at the meeting, "and Don Cameron was with us. We had a free interchange of views. It was easily to be seen that we were whipped, for if Grant could not get the nomination on the first ballot we were whipped. The fact is that he had no more than 317 votes that we knew that we could count on, and I brought up the matter of withdrawing the name of U. S. Grant from before the Convention, and that our delegation should unite, as early as possible, upon Senator Edmunds in case of Grant's withdrawal. Don Cameron said that something had to be done, and it had to be done quickly. A counting of noses was taken, but it was found that only two-thirds of those present would favor Edmunds, and the other one-third for Blaine. Of course this was a sort of palpation in the affairs that Cameron had not anticipated. Without taking action the meeting adjourned."

THE GRANT CAUCUS.

Conkling Weakens.
CHICAGO, June 3.—The Grant men held a caucus last evening. After several speeches Senator Conkling was called upon. He stated frankly at the start that Grant could not be elected on the first ballot, and that the strength of his following was about 300 votes. He then went on to exhort the delegates present to stand firm, and not give way because their candidate was not elected. He believed that the vote would mount steadily upward from 300 to 350. Here he was corrected and said, "I mean 379; you see how poor a politician I am." He then went on with a long complaint about misrepresentations, packed committees and conventions, and the terribly cruel system of issuing tickets. He acknowledged again that Grant could not be elected on the first ballot, and said that the hope was that all the other candidates and dark horses would be tired out if only the Grant men would present a solid front.

An Inexcusable Fabrication.

Deadwood Times.
There was an exciting time on lower Main street yesterday. A gentleman who came in as a passerby to a horse outfit, was suffering from a drought when he struck the town, and with the recklessness characteristic of his profession, rushed into a saloon kept by the Tartar woman Mary, and grabbing up a bottle that was sitting under the counter, and that he supposed contained whiskey, drank nearly half of the contents before he stopped to take breath. When he did stop, he had time to taste what he had been drinking, he gave a yell, and whispering cool oil, sank upon the floor.

It was too true. In his eagerness he had taken the wrong bottle, and had thrown himself around nearly a half pint of kerosene, and thinking his last hour had come, called loudly for mercy. Doctors were sent for in haste, and they came and went into consultation, and they discussed the question as to what was the best antidote.
Dr. E. Sick, the Chinese doctor, came, and although a pagan, he took in the situation at once, and instead of antidote or neutralizer, rushed out and in a few moments returned with a ball of candle wick, and placing one end in the patient's mouth bade him swallow. This the sufferer did with alacrity, and after a half a ball had been swallowed, Dr. E. Sick set it on fire, and soon burned all the coal oil out of him.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Senate this afternoon passed the river and harbor bill, after a contest of several hours. The Senate has increased the amount in this bill to over 9,000,000. It is barely possible that a conference committee may cut this amount down somewhat, but not very much, as the majority of Senators and members are in favor of large appropriations.

NEW SWINDLES.

How Jewelers are Imposed Upon by Sharpers—An Ingenious Device.

From the New York Mail, May 31.
Considerable excitement exists among the jewelers of this and other cities over the successful games practiced by a band of sharpers who have secured valuable diamonds in return for their ventures. A daring fraud was practiced upon a Fulton street jewelry house last week. A middle-aged man, of respectable appearance, entered the store and bought a set of diamond earrings. He handed the money to the salesman, who counted it; but the stranger was not sure that the diamonds would suit his wife, and requested that the money should be put in an envelope and kept in the safe till he returned.

"If I don't come back," he laughingly said, "you have the money." The storekeeper sealed the envelope and the stranger wrote his name on the package, and in blotting it with his nose-paper the sharper changed the envelope to one already addressed conceal-somewhere about the newspaper. Everything was done so openly that no fraud was imagined. A few days later, when the package was opened, nothing but blank slips of paper were found.

A leading Philadelphia jeweler said to an Evening Mail reporter recently: "A few days past a fashionably-dressed young man drove up to our store and requested to see some diamonds. After examining several kinds he chose an expensive diamond cross, but not having the money at hand, he requested us to send one of our clerks with him to his office. This apparently reasonable request we granted."

"The two entered the carriage and drove to a large mercantile warehouse. The shopper, telling our clerk to wait in the carriage, entered the building, and, soon returning, said that he had not the money in the office, but would give him his check for the amount. Our clerk then delivered the diamonds and, departed with the check. We thought nothing more about the transaction until the check was returned from the bank as worthless.

"By inquiry at the warehouse, it appears that a young man had entered their office that morning, and after asking the price of several articles, requested the privilege of drawing a check, which was of course granted. This was the same check our clerk received."

MR. MOODY TALKS ABOUT HIS WORK

What He Accomplished in the West—Christian Education Among the Indians.

New York Tribune.
D. L. Moody, the evangelist, who is to preach at the Cooper Institute this evening was asked yesterday by a Tribune reporter for some particulars in regard to his work at the West. Mr. Moody is looking and feeling well, and is not at all fatigued apparently by his late labors.
His friends say that they never saw him look in better health. In reply to inquiries, he said:

"I have been in St. Louis six months, and we have had meetings every day—two and three a day. They have been largely successful, and the religious interest is fully kept up. There is no special increase, perhaps, but it is very satisfactory."

"Do you not feel tired and exhausted after so much labor?"
"Not at all. One of the most satisfactory works in St. Louis has been the raising of $50,000, with which the Young Men's Christian Association has been enabled to buy one of the large church buildings and fit it up for their work. It immenses are 125 feet by 105 feet, and it is a light on every side. The hall accommodates 1,500 persons, and the association numbers 500 members, and is very active. It is one of the best associations in the country."

"Did you go far South?"
"Yes, I went as far as New Orleans. The religious interest at the South is rapidly increasing. The whole region is opening up splendidly. All the Southern people want now to be let alone. From the residents of New Orleans and several other Southern cities, I have received urgent invitations to pass next winter with them.
I have not yet decided whether to go or not. Before coming East I spent a few days in the Indian Territory for the purpose of getting girls for my new seminary in Northfield. I secured the promise of twelve, whom we shall educate to be missionaries to their people. They are to come next fall. They belong to different tribes and are all anxious to come. This is the only way to settle the Indian question—educate and convert to Christianity the children; for the Indians have a strong love for their children, whose influence over their parents may be of much avail in Eastern schools."

"But do you not fear trouble from the expected invasion of their territory by miners?"
"It is a shameful thing. There are gold and silver enough everywhere without interfering with the rights of the Indians to get them. God will punish this Government if it allows the Indian Territory to be invaded. I was much encouraged from what I saw among the Indians. I think Mr. Schurz's plan for their management is the correct one. He is on the right track. But this disregard which is beginning to be shown for their rights is a terrible wrong."

"What is this new school, at Northfield?"
"It is a work I have taken in hand for the summer. I propose to build a private seminary at Northfield, Franklin county, Massachusetts, for the special education of poor girls for missionary work and teaching. It will accommodate about 100, and will be arranged much like the Mount Holyoke Seminary. I have $50,000 already raised for it, and after finishing it I intend to build a school of much the same description there for boys. I shall pass the summer at this work, personally superintending the building of the seminary I may visit New York occasionally in the summer."

H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

BRIGHAM'S DAUGHTER.

Her Estimate of Her Own Father—A Religion Which Breaks Women's Hearts and Ruins Them.

Several weeks ago five of the daughters of Brigham Young, late head of the Mormon church, were expelled from the church for the crime of having gone to law with certain of the brethren who attempted to rob them.

Afterwards the elders, wishing to make peace with the expelled litigants, sent a couple of "teachers" to interview them. They repaired to the residence of Miss Dora Young. What occurred there is told by the Salt Lake Tribune as follows:

"We want to see, Sister Dora, if you will not come back to us."

"I have received a note calling on me to appear to answer a charge; what would you do?"

"Oh," replied Brother Morris "I should go by all means—by all means."

"But I won't do that, replied the helms, not for the world."

"Oh, come now, sister Dora, don't say that. If you have done anything wrong it will be forgiven."

"Yes, but I haven't done anything wrong. What have I done?"

"You had a suit with your brethren didn't you?"

"Yes, and I wish to gracious I had another one."

"What, with the brethren?"

"Yes, with the brethren."

"Don't say that, Sister Dora; we don't want to hurt your feelings, but—"

"And I don't want you to hurt my feelings. If you do you'll go out of my house a good deal livelier than you came in. I have stood just as much from the Mormons as I intend to bear, and if you two offend me in any way you will go out of that door which a carpenter put there for just such people."

"Oh, we don't want to hurt—"

"Well, then, don't ask me to return to the church; you can't insult me worse than by requesting that."

"Sister Dora, think of your father and mother, and—"

"Don't speak to me of my father, Mr. Morris," she interrupted. "You and the whole church knows that my father, prophet though you call him, broke many a woman's heart. If it required of me to break as many hearts and ruin as many women as my father did, I should go to perdition before I would go back into the church, and—"

"Oh, sister Dora! exclaimed the teachers.

and prayed long and fervently for deliverance. He placed himself in the hands of the Lord, and so was saved. So he passed from one thing to another, and at last the sermon was finished. He raised his hands to pronounce the benediction. The audience stood with bowed heads, waiting for the gracious words when old Captain Sweetser, of North Yarmouth, a rugged old sea dog, cried out: "Say, Mr. Preacher I want you to tell me how you got ashore?" The audience was still no more, but broke into a roar, and it was only five minutes before the minister could explain that a man saw him from the shore and put out in another boat and took him off. But the effect for good of one sermon was spoiled.

The Richest Women in America.
New York Correspondence to the Atlantic Constitution.

The richest woman in America, and indeed, excepting royalty and Baronesse Burdett-Goutts, the richest in the world, is Mrs. E. H. Green, the wife of the Vice President of the Louisville and Nashville road. She was a Miss Robinson, and her father was a whaling master at New Bedford. He owned a fleet of ships known as the blue line of whalers, and from his profession was known as "Blubber Robinson." He died when his daughter was a mere girl and left her a fortune of about $8,000,000. She lived staidly and prudently, and gave the management of her affairs to Mr. John J. Cisco. As her tastes were simple and her wants few, she was able to transfer her enormous income almost every year to the body of the fortune itself, and it has now accumulated to more than $27,000,000. Her husband, Mr. Green, was a very rich man when he married him, and has been successful since. It is said by one who should know that the income of this couple is $2,000,000 a year. Mr. Green is rather large in stature, quiet, reserved, sagacious, and of modest habits. He is about 47 years of age, and she is about 43 years of age.

The richest young ladies in New York are the Misses Garner, the daughters of Commodore Garner, who was drowned under a yacht that overturned a few years ago. He made his fortune in Wall street, and upon his death was able to leave his daughters $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 each, added to this they are charming and beautiful young ladies.

REMOVAL! AND GREAT CLOSING OUT SALE OF $75,000 WORTH OF DRY GOODS, MILLINERY & CARPETS.

McKey & Bro.

Having leased for a term of years the building now being erected by A. P. Bennett, Esq., on the corner of Milwaukee & River streets in this city, WILL COMMENCE IMMEDIATELY the greatest closing out sale ever known in the mercantile annals of Wisconsin.

Description of McKey & Bro.'s New Store.

The block will be 41 feet in front by 130 feet in depth, three stories high with a basement. It is to be built of Milwaukee pressed brick with Joliet cut sand stone trimmings, and when finished it will be the handsomest building in the city. McKey & Bro. will occupy the whole of the first story and basement. The front will be finished in black and gold, with French plate glass windows. A series of circular windows over the shelving on the river street side will furnish a uniform volume of light for the whole store. The counters and shelving are to be made after the most approved modern designs. The front of the store, 100x42, is to be used for the display of Dry Goods and Millinery, while the Carpet department will occupy the rear part, 30x12, raised three steps above the front level. The basement with a high ceiling and admirably lighted by numerous windows in front and rear, and along the River street side will be utilized for storage and wholesale purposes. The office will be in the southeast corner, and is to be provided with a fire proof vault and appropriate furniture. This will be, when completed, the most elegant mercantile establishment in the State, and having been built expressly for a first class Dry Goods Store, without regard to expense, it will be absolutely perfect in all its appointments.

TO THE PEOPLE!

Having concluded to open their new store with an entirely fresh stock of goods, McKey & Bro. have determined to CLOSE OUT in the meantime every dollar's worth of DRY GOODS, MILLINERY and CARPETS now on hand.

This sale is absolutely peremptory and will involve the GREATEST SACRIFICE of goods ever known in the West. McKey & Bro. fully realize the necessity of outting down prices in order to effect so large a sale in so short a time. They will, therefore, contemporaneously with the publication of this announcement make a general and comprehensive reduction in prices in every department of the house.

Every person in Rock county needing supplies of Dry Goods, Millinery or Carpets is invited to participate in the benefits of this great sale. No such opportunity is likely to occur again in the LIFE TIME of any one now living. This is no humbug gotten up for diversion or to deceive the people, but is on the contrary a BONA FIDE sale, made imperative by the circumstances already narrated. Every Mechanic, Artisan, Farmer and every body engaged in business or professional pursuits can and ought to save money by buying their goods of McKey & Bro during the next 60 days. The store now occupied by McKey & Bro., being Nos. 24 and 26 Main street, is to rent from and after September 1, 1880. McKey & Bro., 24 and 26 Main Street, Janesville, Wis. Sign of the Golden Sheep.
